

Idaho Wines Twitter Photo Contest!

We're giving fans an opportunity to score a commemorative Idaho Wines poster, created by local artist Ward Hooper. If you love Idaho wines, iconic local artwork and have a Twitter account (well, maybe now you'll have one!), this contest is for you. All you have to do is capture 10 photos of you at 10 different Idaho wineries and you're automatically entered to win!

HOW TO ENTER

1. Follow @IdahoWines on Twitter.
2. Snap a photo of yourself at any Idaho winery using your mobile phone.
3. Upload the photo (any photo app will do) to Twitter along with what winery you're at, photo link, and the hashtag #IdahoWines. If you don't currently follow us on Twitter, check us out at www.twitter.com/IdahoWines.

(feel free to be as creative as you'd like in calling out the winery, but remember to keep it under 140 characters in order for us to retweet your picture)

4. After 10 photos at 10 different Idaho wineries have been uploaded, we will send you a DM (be sure to follow @IdahoWines so we can contact you!) and your Idaho Wines poster will be on its way!

RULES FOR ENTRY:

- You must be 21 or older to enter.
- We must be able to see your tweets (if you have a private Twitter account, please make it public).
- Limit one photo entry per Idaho winery.
- All #IdahoWines photos are subject to be reused by the Idaho Wine Commission
